

Master Trainer Programme Under Rastriya Karmayogi Jan Seva Begins at ICAR-CAZRI, Jodhpur

Jodhpur, 6 October 2025 — The inaugural day of the three-day Training Programme for development of Master Trainers under the Rastriya Karmayogi Jan Seva Program – Phase II (Zone-II) was successfully conducted at Christian Hall, IGH, ICAR - CAZRI, Jodhpur. The programme, scheduled from 6th to 8th October 2025, is a flagship initiative to build a cadre of transformational trainers across ICAR institutions.

The day commenced with insightful sessions led by Ms. Sunita Arya, Director (Finance), ICAR (HQ), and Sh. I. B. Kumar, Chief Administrative Officer, ICAR - CSWRI, Avikanagar. Both lead trainers emphasized the importance of institutional commitment, behavioural transformation, and citizen-centric governance.

Day one covered four foundational modules: (i) Who is a Rashtriya Karmayogi, (ii) Expanding our Vision of Success and Fulfilment, (iii) Creating Karmayogi Moments, and (iv) The Rashtriya Karmayogi as a Nation-BUILDER. These were delivered through interactive formats, encouraging reflection, dialogue, and peer learning.

The day concluded with a structured assessment, recording an impressive overall performance score of 92% for the batch. The high engagement and enthusiasm set a promising tone for the remaining sessions, reinforcing the mission of nurturing future-ready public service leaders.
