

Master Trainer Development Programme under Rastriya Karmayogi Jan Seva Concludes

8th October 2025, Jodhpur

The three-day Training Programme for the development of Master Trainers under the Rastriya Karmayogi Jan Seva Program – Phase II (Zone-II) was successfully conducted at ICAR - CAZRI, Jodhpur from 6th to 8th October 2025. A total of 25 participants representing 15 ICAR institutes across Zone-II took part in this transformative initiative aimed at building institutional leadership for citizen-centric governance. Dr. S P S Tanwar, Director (A.) congratulated the participants. He said that master trainers will play key role in developing skills in human resource in respective institutes by this transformative initiative aimed at building institutional leadership for citizen centric governance.

The programme was led by Ms Sunita Arya, Director (Finance), ICAR (HQ), and Sh. I. B. Kumar, Chief Administrative Officer, ICAR - CSWRI, Avikanagar. Over the course of three days, participants engaged in structured modules covering the philosophy of a Rashtriya Karmayogi, vision alignment, programme architecture, facilitation techniques, and digital pedagogy using the Illumine PedGog™ platform.

Interactive sessions, practice cycles, and peer demonstrations enabled participants to internalize the programme's values and delivery framework. Nine practice cycles were conducted to build facilitation fluency and confidence. Daily assessments reflected high engagement and conceptual clarity, with batch performance consistently exceeding 90%.

At the conclusion of the programme, all participants committed to rolling out the Rashtriya Karmayogi Jan Seva initiative in their respective institutes. The lead trainers assured continued mentoring and support to ensure effective implementation and sustained impact.

This programme marks a significant milestone in ICAR's journey towards nurturing a values-driven, future-ready workforce and strengthening institutional capacity through empowered Master Trainers.
