

Winter School on “Recent approaches in horticultural development for enhancing farm income in environmentally constraints ecosystem” (Nov. 27- Dec. 17, 2018)

ICAR-Sponsored 21 days (Nov. 27 to Dec. 17, 2018) winter school on “Recent approaches in horticultural development for enhancing farm income in environmentally constraints ecosystem” is being started at ICAR-CAZRI, Jodhpur. The winter school has been inaugurated by Dr. O. P. Pareek, Former Director-CIAH, Bikaner. In inaugural speech Dr. Pareek stressed upon integration of horticultural component in existing farming system of arid zone for economic sustainability. Dr. O. P. Yadav, Director-CAZRI welcomed the chief guest and emphasized upon horticulture as potential sector for achieving set target of doubling farmers’ income by the year 2022. More than 20 participants from ICAR, SAUs, KVK of 5 states are attending this course. This winter school is being organized by Dr. Akath Singh, Dr. N. R. Panwar and Dr. Pradeep Kumar.

