- 21.4 No bid may be withdrawn in the interval between the deadline for submission of bids and the expiration of the period of bid validity specified by the bidder in are bid form. Withdrawal of a bid during this interval may result in forfeiture of the bidder's security pursuant to ITB clause 15.7

E. BID OPENING AND BID EVALUATION

22. Opening of bids by purchaser

- 22.1 The purchaser will open the bids in the presence of bidder's representative, who choose to attend, the time, date and the place specified in the Schedule of Requirements.

If the specified date of bid opening is declared a holiday for the purchaser, the bid shall be opened at the appointed time and location on the next working day.

- 22.2 The representative of a bidder, who intends to attend the bid opening, shall bring with him/her a letter of authority from the bidder on the bidder's letter head, duly authorizing him/her to attend the bid opening. In the absence of such a letter of authority, the representative (S) will not be allowed to enter and attend the bid opening. The bidder's representative, who attend the bid opening, shall sign a register (which will be provided by the purchaser) evidencing their attendance.
- 22.3 The bidder's name, technical specifications of the goods offered, bid prices, discounts, the presence or absence of the requisite bid security and such other details as the purchaser, at its discretion, may consider appropriate will be announced at the opening.
- 22.4 The purchaser will prepare appropriate minutes of the bid opening for its official record.

23. Clarification of bids

- 23.1 During scrutiny and evaluation of bids, the purchaser may, at its discretion, ask a bidder for a clarification of its bid. The request for clarification and the response shall be in writing and no change in the price or substance of the bid shall be sought, offered or permitted.

24. Preliminary examination of bids-unresponsive, substantially responsive and responsive bids

- 24.1 The purchaser will examine the bids to determine whether they are complete, whether the required bid validity is available, whether any computational errors have been made, whether required bid security has been furnished, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether the bids are generally in order. While examining the bids, the purchaser will also keep in view the requirements as per ITB Clause 8.
- 24.2 Arithmetical errors, of any in a bid will be rectified on the following basis. If there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected accordingly. If there is a discrepancy between the words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail. If the supplier does not accept the correction of such errors, its bid will be rejected.
- 24.3 Prior to the detailed evaluation pursuant to ITB clause 26, the purchaser will determine the substantial responsiveness of each bid to the bidding documents. A substantially responsive bid is one that conforms to all the requirements and terms & conditions of the bidding documents, including the specification and technical parameters of the goods as projected in the bidding document, without material deviation. Deviations from or objections or reservations to the bidding documents. Critical provision, such as those concerning bid validity. Technical specification, performance security, warranty obligations, Force measures taxes & duties and applicable law (governing the contract) will be deemed to be material deviations. Bids from an agent without proper authorization from the manufacturer as per ITB clause 13.2 (a), shall be treated as non-responsive. The purchaser's determination of a bid's responsiveness is to be based on the contents of the bid itself without recourse to extrinsic evidence.
- 24.4 The purchaser may waive any minor infirmity. Non-conformity or irregularity in a bid, which does not constitute a material deviation, provided such waiver does not prejudice or affect the relative ranking of any bidder.
- 24.5 The conclusion drawn by the purchaser as to the substantial responsiveness or otherwise of a bid or consideration of a minor infirmity of non-conformity or irregularity in a bid is final.
- 24.6 If a bid is determined as not substantially responsive, it will be rejected by the purchaser and may not subsequently be made responsive by the bidder by correction of the non-conformity.

25. Conversion to single currency

- 25.1 To facilitate evaluation and comparison of bids, the purchaser will convert all bid prices expressed in the amounts in various currencies in which the bid price are payable, to Indian rupees at the BC selling market rate of exchange established by State Bank of India for similar transactions as on the date of bid opening.

26. Evaluation and comparison of bids

- 26.1 The purchaser will evaluate and compare the bids, which have been determined to be substantially responsive, pursuant to ITB clause 24 for each schedule separately. The bid for a schedule will not be considered if the complete requirement covered in the schedule is not included in the bid. However, as stated in ITB clause 10, bidders are allowed the option to bid for any one or more schedule and to offer discounts for combined schedules. These discounts will be taken into account in the evaluation of the bids so as to determine the bid or combination of bids offering the lowest evaluated cost for the purchaser in deciding award (S) for each schedule.
- 26.2 The comparison shall be on CIP destinations basis, duly delivered and commissioned (as the case may be) at the destination.
- 26.3 The purchaser's evaluation of a bid will include and take into account, in addition to bid price and price of the incidental services:
- a) In the case of goods manufactured in India or goods of foreign origin already located in India, sales tax & other similar taxes and excise duty & other similar duties, which will be payable on the goods if a contract is awarded to the bidder; and
 - b) In the case of goods of foreign origin offered from abroad, customs duties and other similar import duties/taxes, which will be payable on the goods if the contract is awarded to the bidder.
- 26.4 The purchaser's evaluation of bid will also take into account the following factors in the manner and to the extent specified in Schedule of Requirements and amplified in ITB clause 26.5:
- a) cost of inland transportation, insurance and other costs within India incidental to delivery of the goods to their final destination as stipulated in the Schedule of Requirements.
 - b) delivery schedule offered in the bid
 - c) the cost of components, spare parts and service,
 - d) the availability of spare parts and after sale service in India for the goods offered in the bid.

- e) the projected operating and maintenance cost during the life of the equipment.
- f) Specific additional criteria

26.5 Pursuant to clause 26.4, following evaluation methods will be followed:

a. Inland transportation, insurance and incidentals:

Bidder shall quote separately for inland transportation, insurance and other incidentals for delivery of goods to the required destination as already indicated in the Schedule of Requirements. These costs, incurred in India, shall be quoted in Indian currency. Such costs will be added by the purchaser to the EXW/CIF/CIP bid price

b. Delivery schedule:

The purchaser requires that the goods mentioned in the 'Schedule of requirements' shall be delivered at the destination within the time schedule specified therein. As and if necessary. Forfeiture of its performance security and / or Termination of the contract for default.

- 22.3 If at any time during the performance of the contract, the supplier or its subcontractor(s) should encounter conditions hindering timely delivery of the goods and performance of services, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its cause(s). After the receipt of the supplier's discretion extend the supplier's time for performance, in which case the extension of the delivery period shall be ratified by issuing an amendment to the contract.
- 22.4 The supplier shall not dispatch the goods after expiry of the delivery period. The supplier is required to apply to the purchaser for extension of delivery period and obtain the same before dispatch. In case the supplier dispatch the goods without obtaining an extension, it would be doing so at its own risk and no claim for payment for such supply and / or any other expense related to such supply shall lie against the purchaser.

23 Liquidated damages

- 23.1 Subject to GCC clause 25, if the supplier fails to delivery any or all of the goods or perform the services within the time period(s) specified in the contract, the purchaser shall without prejudice to its other remedies under the contract, deduct from the contract price, as liquidated damages, a sum equivalent to 0.5 % (half percent) of the delivered price of the delayed goods or unperformed services for each week of delay or part thereof until actual delivery of performance, up to a maximum deduction of 10% (ten percent) of the delayed goods or services contract price. Once the maximum is reached, the purchaser may consider termination of the contract, if the same have not been terminated already.

Further, during the above mentioned delayed period of supply and / or performance, the supplier, notwithstanding any stipulation in the contract for increase in price for any ground, shall not be entitled to any increase in price and cost, whatsoever, which take place during the period of delay. But, nevertheless, the purchaser shall be entitled to the benefit any decrease in price and cost on any ground during that period of delay.

24 Termination for default

- 24.1 The purchaser, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, may, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, terminate the contract in whole or in part, if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods or fails to perform any other contractual obligation(s) within the time period specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the purchaser pursuant to GCC clause 22.
- 24.2 In the event the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, pursuant to GCC sub-clause 24.1, the purchaser may procure, upon such terms and conditions and in such manner as it deems appropriate, goods and / or services similar to those undelivered and the supplier shall be liable to the purchaser for any excess cost for such similar goods and / or services. However, the supplier shall continue to perform the contract to the extent not terminated.

25 Force Majeure

- 25.1 Notwithstanding the provisions of GCC clauses 22, 23 and 24, the supplier shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, liquidated damages or termination for default, if and to the extent that its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure.
- 25.2 For purposes of the clause, "Force Majeure" means an event beyond the control of the supplier and not involving the supplier's fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not restricted to, acts of the purchaser in its sovereign capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions and freight embargoes.
- 25.3 If a Force Majeure situation arises, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the purchaser in writing, the supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

26 Termination for insolvency

- 26.1 If the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent, the purchaser may terminate the contract by giving written notice to the supplier, without any compensation to the supplier, provided, that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued and / or will accrue thereafter to the purchaser.

27. Termination for convenience

- 27.1 The purchaser by written notice sent to the supplier, may terminate the contract in whole or in part, at any time for its convenience. The notice of termination shall specify that the termination is for the purchaser's convenience, the extent to which performance of the supplier under the contract is terminated, and the date with effect from which such termination becomes effective.

- 27.2 The goods that are complete and ready for shipment within 30 (thirty) days after the supplier's receipt of notice of termination shall be accepted by the purchaser at the contract terms and prices. For the remaining goods, the purchaser may elect:
- a) to have any portion completed and delivered at the contract terms and prices; and / or
 - b) to cancel the remainder and pay to the supplier an agreed amount for partially completed goods and services and for materials and parts already procured by the supplier for fulfilling the contractual obligations.

28 Resolution of disputes

- 28.1 If any dispute or difference of any kind shall arise between the purchaser and the supplier in connection with or arising out of the contract, the parties shall make every effort to resolve the same amicably by mutual consultations.
- 28.2 If, after thirty (30) days, the parties have failed to resolve their dispute or different by such mutual consultation, then either the purchaser or the supplier may give notice to the other party of its intention to commence arbitration, as hereinafter provided, as to the matter in dispute, and no arbitration in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given.
- 28.3 Any dispute or difference, in respect of which a notice of intention to commence arbitration has been given in accordance with GCC sub-clause 28.2, shall be finally settled by arbitration. Arbitration may be commenced prior to or after delivery of the goods under the contract.
- 28.4 The dispute resolution mechanism to be applied pursuant to GCC sub-clause 28.3, shall be as follows:
- a) In the case of a dispute or difference arising between the purchaser and the supplier relating to any matter arising out of or connected with the contract, such disputes or difference shall be settled in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation, ACT, 1996. The arbitral tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators, one each to be appointed by the purchaser and the supplier. The third arbitrator shall be chosen by the two arbitrators so appointed by the parties and shall act as presiding arbitrator. In case of failure of the two arbitrators appointed by the parties to reach upon a consensus within a period of thirty days from the appointment of the arbitrator appointed subsequently, the presiding arbitrator shall be appointed by the Indian Council of Arbitration or President of the Institution of Engineers (India).
 - b) The decision of majority of arbitrators shall be final and binding upon the parties.
 - c) The cost and expenses of the arbitration proceedings will be paid as determined by the arbitral tribunal. However, the expenses incurred by each party in connection with the preparation, presentation etc. of its proceedings as also fees and expenses paid to the arbitrator appointed by such party or on its behalf shall be borne by each party itself.

28.5 However, where the value of the contract is Rs. 15 laks (Rupees one and half million) and below, the disputes or differences arising in it shall be referred to sole arbitrator. The sole arbitrator shall be appointed by mutual agreement between the parties. If the parties fail to agree on the arbitrator within 30 (thirty) days from the receipt of a request by one party from the other party to so agree, the appointment shall be made upon request of a party, by the Indian Council of Arbitration or the President of the Institution of Engineers (India).

28.6 The value of arbitration shall be the place from where the contract is issued.

29 Governing Language

29.1 The contract shall be written in English language. All correspondence and other documents pertaining to the contract, which the parties exchange, shall also be written in English.

30. Applicable law

30.1 The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of India.

31. Notice

31.1 Any notice given by one party to the other pursuant to the contract shall be sent in writing or by cable telex or facsimile and confirmed in writing to the addresses specified in the Schedule of Requirements.

31.2 A notice shall be effective when delivered or on the notice's effective date, whichever is later.

32 Taxes and duties

32.1 A foreign supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, stamp duties license fees and other such levies imposed outside India.

32.2 A local supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, duties, license fees, etc. incurred until delivery of the contracted goods to the purchaser.

32.3 Further instruction if, any, shall be as provided in the Schedule of Requirements.
