

XII Research Advisory Committee meeting held at Institute

XII Research Advisory Committee (RAC) meeting held at institute on 13 December, 2018. Dr. J.S. Samra, Chairman - RAC and Former DDG (NRM)- ICAR and Former CEO of NRAA along with other members of the RAC, Dr. S. Bhaskar, ADG (Agriculture, Agroforestry and Climate Change)-ICAR, Dr. D.K. Benbi, National Professor- Punjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana, Dr. H.S. Balyan, Professor (Plant Reproduction and Genetics) - Chaudhary Charan Singh University, Meerut and Dr. I. J. Mathur, Director (Extension), Maharana Pratap University of Agriculture and Technology, Udaipur were present in the meeting. Head of Divisions and other seniors officials of the CAZRI attended the meeting. Earlier RAC also visited the CAZRI research farm. RAC Chairman Dr. Samra recommended cultivation of low cost, low water and short duration crops for the farmers to maximize income from the farming. He also stressed upon skill enhancement of farmers to adopt the latest farming technologies. Assistant Director General Dr. S. Bhaskar advised for cultivation of high value vegetables in the interspaces of solar PV panels for income enhancement. During the meeting Dr. O.P. Yadav, Director gave information about the research projects, activities, and achievements of the institute. Head of the Divisions presented the research activities of their divisions before the RAC. The RAC appreciated the commendable research work done by the CAZRI and congratulated Director-CAZRI and staff members for Best Institute Award.

